

CLOSING PROGRAM AT ACADEMY TO BE ON THURSDAY

Miss Valeria Lorig and Miss
Nola Young to Graduate
From St. Joseph's.

For the graduation exercises of St. Joseph's academy a very interesting program has been prepared by the Sisters of Loretto and will be given at the academy, on North El Paso street, Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. The graduates are Miss Valeria Lorig and Miss Nola Young.

The program will open with an ensemble number by the orchestra of the academy. Misses Margaret O'Boyle, Edna Alms, Jean Krause and Helen Krause will play a four hand piano selection, "Overture Pique Dame." The "Magnetic Waltz" by Arditi will be sung by the academy chorus, with Miss Jean Krause and Miss Alms. Orndorff, the accompanists on the piano, and Miss Helen Krause and Miss A. Burke. Miss Madeline Tandy will play a violin solo, "Berceuse," number 2. Miss Edna Alms will play her piano accompaniment. Miss Nola Young will sing "Face to Face," with Miss Alms accompanying her on the piano.

A four part piano selection, "When the Lights Are Low," by Engelmann, will be played by Misses L. Sarrell, M. O'Connor, M. Alms and E. O'Boyle. Miss Helen Krause, first violin, Miss Alms Orndorff, second violin, and Miss J. Krause, piano, will play "Alta Stella Confidente."

Allegorical Pantomime. "The Three Calls of the Eleventh Hour" will be presented with a musical accompaniment on the piano by Miss M. O'Boyle. In this Miss Julia Bigelow will act the part of the "eleventh hour," "Fidelity." Miss Nola Young will be the first angel; Miss Regina Carson, the second angel, and Miss Zita O'Rourke, the third angel.

Following this, Misses L. Sarrell and M. Alms will play Godard's second mazurka. Miss Valeria Lorig will sing a vocal solo, "Good Bye Sweet Day," accompanied by Miss A. Orndorff. Miss Nola Young will read an essay, "Antonio Luchini will play a piano solo from the opera, "Rigoletto," depicted by Liszt. The academy chorus will sing "Love's Old Sweet Song." Miss Jean Krause accompanying on the piano. Chopin's waltz No. 1 will be played by Misses M. O'Boyle and E. Alms. Miss A. Burke will play a violin solo, "Serenade," by Brind. Miss L. Sarrell, playing her piano accompaniment. A two piano selection, "Polka de la Reine," will be played by Miss J. Krause and Miss Helen Krause. The program will close with the valedictory address by Miss Valeria Lorig.

Junior Exercises. The exercises of the closing of the junior department of St. Joseph's academy will be held Wednesday morning in the academy at 9 o'clock. The program follows:

"Rough Riders," four part piano selection, by Engelmann, played by Misses R. Orndorff, P. Alms, C. Seggermann and L. Burke.

Song, "Don't," by C. A. Brown, sung by the intermediate classes. "Learning to Waltz," played by Virginia Krause, Norma Kleinmann, Edith Eickie and Victoria Hansen.

Chorus, "Ballad," by Dudley Buck, will be sung by the intermediate classes.

"Little Fairy Waltz" by Strassburg, will be played by Geraldine and Roselle Alms.

Recitation, "Legend of the Mountain Flower," by Edwin Cordova.

Piano quartet, "Star of the Sea," played by Anna Marie Jones, Anna N. Laughlin, Kathleen Orndorff and Jane Knight.

"The Keepsake," by Petrie, a four part piano selection, played by Pearl Hand, Lape Guetierrez, Margaret O'Connor and R. Orndorff.

A playlet, "The Holidays," will close the program. In this Elizabeth Gordon will play "The Year," Pauline Gordon will play "New Year's Day," Florence H. Scott will be "Valentine's day," V. Krause is to be "Washington's Birthday," Eleanor McIntire will be "St. Patrick's day," Helen Stevenson will be "Arbor day," Fay Bult will be the "Fourth of July," Loretta Waddell will be "Summer Vacation," Annette Shipley will be "Halloween," and "Christmas" will be acted by Anna McLaughlin.

AGED MOTHER FINDS ONE SON DEAD, OTHER IN JAIL. San Francisco, Calif., May 23.—When the aged mother of David Williams, a reputed gambler who was shot dead Friday in a barroom fight, heard of his death, she went in search of her other son, William, for aid and comfort.

She found him Saturday night in jail, charged with robbery.

"Oh, Willie, Willie," she cried. "Why do I find you here? Don't you know what happened to David?"

"No."

"He was killed by a robber. I wanted you to attend his funeral, but I don't suppose they will let you out. I'll have to follow my boy's body to the grave alone."

"Goodbye, Willie; I'll be dead when you get out of jail. I suppose it's best that way. Goodbye, my boy."

She went out.

FINNS ARE WHIPPED FOR CHEERING JUDGES' RELEASE. Helsinki, Finland, May 23.—After serving eight months' imprisonment for refusing to enforce a law conferring equal rights on Russians with Finns, the Finns in Finland passed the dura, but not the Finnish senate, the entire high court of Viborg, consisting of 16 judges, returned here Sunday.

An immense crowd assembled to welcome the judges and cheered enthusiastically. Mounted gendarmes, riding on the sidewalks, used their whips on the people for unlawful cheering.

The judges were imprisoned at St. Petersburg.

COMMERCE DIRECTORS FAVOR ADCLUB TRIP

Resolution is Adopted Whereby Two El Paso Organizations Will Work Jointly for Benefit of City.

Believing that great benefit will accrue to the business men of El Paso by advertising the city and the valley, north and south, the chamber of commerce is going to assist the Adclub in financing their trip to Toronto. In addition to that the chamber of commerce will supply the delegates with advertising literature to be distributed. In return the Adclub has promised to lend its support to the chamber of commerce in raising the budget fund for next year.

This was decided at the joint meeting held by representatives of the Adclub and directors of the chamber of commerce, Saturday afternoon. The two organizations by the adoption of a resolution went on record as standing together in any undertaking that means a bigger and better El Paso. Subscriptions obtained from merchants to send the delegates to Toronto, the Adclub stated, had been voluntarily offered.

During the meeting George LaBaron suggested the advisability of establishing a publicity bureau in connection with the chamber of commerce. Henry Beach, chairman of the publicity committee, considered the idea an excellent one. The publicity bureau is a feature endorsed by the directors and it may be used as an argument in the raising of the next budget fund.

The Adclub men present at the meeting were: H. E. McIntock, R. E. Sherman and Arthur Tobias. The directors were: Robert Krakauer, president; Henry Beach, George LaBaron, Bert Orndorff, A. W. Reeves, secretary.

GIRL TRIES TO SAVE HER SISTER'S LIFE; BOTH DROWN

Lamar, Colo., May 23.—Miss Pearl Beach, aged 22 years, and her sister, Zola, aged 16 years, daughters of E. T. Beach, a prominent ranchman of Monmouth, 125 miles south of here, were drowned Sunday in Bear creek.

The older girl lost her life in an effort to save her sister. Both were to have been married next month at a double wedding.

ARE YOU SAVING CASH SLIPS ON HERALD'S $250 BARGAIN PAGE?

When You Buy From the Merchants Using Cooperative Bargain Page, Ask
For Slips; They're as Good as Money.

See list of merchants on page 12 today.

It pays to patronize advertisers in The Herald—that is always true, but particularly true at the present time, for, in addition to the benefits derived from taking advantage of the special offerings of the advertisers, The Herald is going to distribute $250 among its readers as a direct return for their patronizing some of its advertisers.

The $250 which is to be given to patrons of certain advertisers in The Herald is to be divided into five amounts of $50, $25, $15 and $10, respectively. This money is to be distributed according to a unique plan and to win it does not require the expenditure of any effort or money. The money is to be given to persons who have cash slips from the merchants advertising in the Herald, this evening and will appear each Monday and Friday during a period of 10 weeks. To the person or organization turning in the cash slips from these merchants representing the largest amount of money during the period that the Bargain Page runs The Herald will give $50; to the one turning in slips representing the next largest amount the $25 will be given, and the $15, $10 and $10 will be given to the three turning in slips representing the next largest amounts. All that it is necessary to do to secure cash slips when purchases are made at any of the advertisers on page 12 today and turn them into The Herald office, where a note will be credited for each cent expended as shown by the slips.

There will be no bonus or special vote offered in connection with this Bargain Page, except that each person or organization that enters is entitled to one nomination coupon giving them two votes. Each competitor is entitled to the 1000 nomination votes and then it is straight competition of one vote for each cent expended as shown by the cash slips turned in.

Several persons have already been nominated and some have turned in cash slips, but no one has turned in slips representing more than a few dollars, so it is not too late to start for slips representing the expenditure of a few dollars with the merchants advertising on the Bargain Page will put any one even in the race as it now stands, and then it will simply be a question of remembering to get cash slips when purchases are made and of turning them into The Herald. Everyone should compete, for it costs nothing, and will really take no time or effort. Those who do not win will get nothing, and those who do will find the prize money the easiest money they ever earned.

Send in a nomination coupon today and then start saving cash slips, and ask your friends who are not entered to save slips and have the votes for them credited to you. But remember that votes once credited to anyone cannot be transferred to anyone else, but must stand as first credited.

Nomination Coupons. $250 Gold Given Away. Bargain Refund Page. Good for 1000 votes for nomination only to be used within 5 days of date.
